

Environmental policy

Top Management of Enics Slovakia s.r.o. is supposed to fulfill our customer's requirements and public expectations considering environmental protection. It is committed together with its employees to build, keep, maintain and improve system of environmental management in order to fully control our environmental impact and to create conditions to reduce negative environmental impacts.

Environmental policy of Enics Slovakia s.r.o. is based upon following principles:

- 1. Systematic creation of suitable conditions and resources to implement, build up and sustainable improve system of environmental management according to STN EN ISO 14 001.
- 2. All employees shall identify themselves with environmental management rules and increase the customer's knowledge level in the area of environmental protection by means of further internal company education.
- 3. Focus on waste volume minimalization, on maximal recycling of existing waste and to waste handling according to valid particular legal rules.
- 4. Implement new legal rules into existing control documentation and focus on observance of the legal rules of the Slovak republic in the whole environmental area.
- 5. Apply saving all types of energies being used by the company through program of technical arrangements.

Enics Slovakia s.r.o. management is obliged to fulfill following principles:

- Define long term and short term targets to support this policy,
- Create feasible programs of environmental management to support relevant defined targets and assure continual environmental improvement in the company,
- Assure correct information for all employees and the public about its fulfillment and make public access to the information regarding activity and arrangements to protect environment.

Rastislav Broska

.....
Management Representative

Markus Greber

.....
General Manager