

Enics Estonia Quality-, Environment- and Health & Safety Policy

In our work we are following continuous improvement principles, which mean taking initiative, developing actions and implementing immediate corrective actions. Every Enics Estonia employee is responsible for following Quality-, Environment- and Health & Safety Policy, their work quality, environmental friendly acting and job safety.

- Follow Enics AG mission, vision and values;
- Consider expectations and needs of all parties throughout the entire cooperation;
- Improve customer satisfaction and customer relations, product and service quality, work environment;
- Operate according to Estonian regulations, ISO 9001:2000, ISO 14001:2004, OHSAS 18001:2007, ISO 13485:2003, ISO/TS 16949:2002, IRIS:2009 and other standards, approved by Enics Estonia;
- Prevent injuries and health impairment and assure safe work environment to all employees;
- Develop employees competences;
- Ensure the sustainability of the company and assure that all activities are according to our Management Policy;
- Continuously improve our Management System.